Americans with Disabilities

Purpose

The purpose of this document is to describe how the Olympia Weavers Guild will comply with the Americans with Disabilities Act.

Authority/Relevant Documents

Organizational Details, Section IV

Policies

I. General Statement

- A. It is the intent of the Guild to adhere to the requirements of the Americans with Disabilities Act to the extent possible while not fundamentally altering an event or causing undue hardship to the organization.
 - 1. Membership meetings will be held in ADA mobility compliant facilities.
 - 2. Membership meetings will routinely use microphones for those speaking or wishing to ask questions.
 - 3. Service animals will be accommodated when possible.
 - 4. Members may request accommodation (see Procedure) and reasonable efforts will be made to accommodate them.
 - 5. Workshops and Study Groups may meet in facilities not ADA compliant, but reasonable efforts will be made to accommodate those wishing to attend on an individual basis.
 - 6. Members with severe food allergies or allergies to materials (such as some basketmaking supplies) are advised to take care and to follow prescribed precautions. Foods brought to Guild functions should indicate if common allergens are included (gluten, nuts, for example).
 - a. Hospitality Lead, when scheduling refreshments, will caution volunteers to label foods containing or lacking common allergens (examples: gluten free, contains nuts, contains dairy, vegan) (This phrase will be added to the responsibilities of the Hospitality Subcommittee of the Social Events Committee.)

Operational Procedures

I. Request for Accommodation

- A. When filling out the Membership application (see Organizational Details)
 - 1. If you have special needs and would like to request accommodation, please contact the Membership Chair listed on the Membership Form or through the website at info@olympiaweaversguild.org.
- B. At any time during your membership that a need arises that requires accommodation contact the Membership Chair to explain your need for accommodation.
- C. If you have questions related to a scheduled workshop or study group, contact the Chair of Programs and Workshops or the contact person for the specific study group.
 - a. Lack of ability to answer a question or accommodate a request should be referred to the President of the Board.

Effective Date: 03/05/2023

Awards

Purpose

The purpose of this document is to set forth existing awards and to define the process for creating and bestowing awards within the Guild.

Policy

I. General Guidelines for Awards

- A. Awards may be single, one-time events or may be recurring.
- B. Awards may be given to members of the public or to Guild members based on processes and criteria proposed to and approved by the Board.
- C. Awards are not grants and there is no obligation on the part of the awardee to present a program.
- D. Existing Guild Policies and Operational Procedures for the receiving, handling, counting and management of funds shall be followed by all Committee chairs and members at all times. Additionally, Committee chairs and others responsible for budgeted income and expenses shall follow existing Guild POPs for budget development and adjustments. See Finances.

II. Current Awards

- A. The Terri Standley Inspirational Member Award
 - 1. Terri had a caring, loving heart and great skills with fiber. She generously shared herself and her knowledge with each of us in the guild without limitations and sometimes unknowingly to us.
 - 2. This award is given to a member who has been an inspiration to other Guild members. Inspiration may be broadly defined and may include terms such as thoughtfulness, kindhearted, a mentor, generous with his/her expertise and or time, a friend of the Guild.
 - 3. The amount of this award is $100.00.
- B. The Marjorie Erickson Memorial Award
 - 1. This award was instituted to honor the memory of Marjorie and her lifelong commitment and generosity to the Guild as well as teaching weaving.
 - 2. Qualifying nominees will have completed the Beginning Weavers Class at least one year prior to the nomination and up to four years in the past. They will be current members of the Guild in good standing, active in the Guild, and have continued their pursuit of weaving.

3. The amount of this award is $250.00.

Operational Procedures

I. Establishing Awards

- A. Any current member of the Guild in good standing may request that an award be considered by making a written request to the President of the Board of Directors.
- B. The written request should include the parameters of the award and the reasons the request should be considered.
- C. If the President deems the request to have merit, the Board will consider the request and forward it to an Ad Hoc committee to work out the details of the proposal and the award.
- D. The Committee's final product will be considered for approval by the Board of Directors.

II. Giving an Award

- A. Written recommendations for award recipients may be submitted to the President by members in good standing.
- B. Deadline for accepting nominations is the March membership meeting of each year.
- C. The Board of Directors will have discretion deciding on nominations submitted, will respond to those who made the nomination before the May meeting, and will assign related tasks.
- D. Awards (if any) will be presented at the June picnic.
- E. An article will appear in the newsletter after each presentation.
- F. The awards will be in the form of a gift certificate from one of the major advertisers in our yearbook – a company that sells yarn, supplies, equipment and books -- which company is the choice of the awardee.
- G. In the case of the Marjorie Erickson Memorial award, the President will check with the Member Education Chair to ensure that the nominee qualifies for the award. The Chair of Member Education maintains a list of participants in the Beginning Weavers Class so that it is easy to check on eligibility.
 - a. Current instructors of the Beginning Weavers Class will write an article about the recipient for the newsletter after the award is presented.

Board Of Directors

Purpose

The purpose of this document is to describe the Board of Directors, their qualifications, and how they function.

Authority/Relevant Documents

Relevant documents are as follows:

Articles of Incorporation, Certificate of Amendment.
Bylaws, Sections 3 and 4
Policies and Operational Procedures: Finances, General Committee Information,
Operational Details

Policies

I. Composition

The Board of Directors is composed of a minimum of nine (9) and a maximum of fourteen (14) members.

II. Qualifications

- A. To be considered for election to the Board of Directors, an individual must have been an active member of the Guild for at least one (1) year.
- B. Active membership is defined as at least one of the following:
 - 1. Regularly attends membership meetings;
 - 2. Member of a study group;
 - 3. Serves on a committee; or
 - 4. Participates in one or more events.

III. Term

- A. Directors are elected by a majority vote of the current Board for a term of two (2) years or until they resign, are removed, or a successor is appointed. (See Bylaws.)
 - 1. Prospective Directors are making a commitment of two years when agreeing to stand for election to the Board.
 - 2. Once elected, a Director may resign, if necessary, at any time.
 - 3. A Director may be removed by the Board of Directors (see Bylaws for description of the removal process).

- a. Example: A Director becomes medically unable to continue to serve or to resign.
- 4. Directors will indicate, to the Recruitment Committee, by March 15th of each year, whether they wish to continue as a Director in the next year or to have a successor appointed at the Annual meeting held in May.
- B. There is no limit to the number of two-year terms a Director may serve, but Directors are encouraged to consider stepping down after four years to allow other members to experience the opportunity of holding a Board position.

IV. Recruitment of Directors

- A. In March of each year, the Recruitment Committee, chaired by a Director or Guild-member appointee, will determine the number of Directors needed to stand for election in May and compile a list of qualified candidates for presentation to the Board at the Annual Meeting in May.
- B. At any time, if the number of Directors, for any reason, falls below the minimum number of nine (9), the Recruitment Committee will seek qualified members to stand for appointment.

V. Meetings of the Board

- A. The Annual Meeting of the Board of Directors occurs in May of each year to accomplish the following business:
 - 1. Elect Directors as needed.
 - 2. Elect Officers for the upcoming term.
 - 3. Consider and pass a budget.
 - 4. Affirm/appoint Committee Chairs, including those chaired by Directors (Finances, Policy & Operational Procedures, Recruitment Committees).
 - 5. Set/confirm a schedule for regular Director and Membership meetings.
 - 6. Plan for the upcoming year.
- B. Regular Meetings of the Board of Directors may be scheduled to conduct business as needed which may include the following:
 - 1. Budget and/or account review.
 - 2. Discuss/approve Policies and Operational Procedures.
 - 3. Consider unexpected Director or Officer replacements.
 - 4. Guild planning.
- C. Special Meetings of the Board of Directors may be scheduled to consider specific issues.

- D. Directors may take action in lieu of meeting by unanimous written consent of directors (Consent in Lieu of Meeting). Refer to Procedure for how to do a Consent in Lieu of Meeting.
- E. Minutes of all Board meetings and the vote of all Consents will be recorded by the Secretary, published in the newsletter, approved by a simple majority of a quorum of Directors at the first opportunity, and retained in accordance with Bylaw requirements.

VI. Quorum of the Board

A quorum of the Board is a majority of the Directors in office at the time the meeting is properly called (see Bylaws for how to properly call a meeting) and present in person or by remote communication.

VII. Voting

- A. Each Director has one (1) vote. Directors may vote in person, by remote communication or by electronic transmission at a meeting where a quorum is present.
- B. Voting by proxy or by attorney-in-fact is not permitted.

VIII. Membership Attendance at Board Meetings

- A. Members are welcome to attend Annual and Regular Board meetings.
- B. Members may be invited to attend Special Board meetings at the discretion of the Board of Directors.
- C. Members and Committee Chairpersons wishing to address the Board of Directors at the Annual or Regular meetings must do so after requesting to be added to the agenda or during a period set aside for this purpose by the Board.

IX. Officers of the Board of Directors

- A. Officers are elected by the Board at the Annual Meeting, following the recommendations of the Recruitment Committee.
 - 1. Candidates for election shall have been a Director for a minimum of one (1) year and
 - 2. Have actively participated in Board activities.
- B. The Officers shall manage the day-to-day operations of the Guild.
 - 1. Anytime the Officers are unable to achieve a majority vote (three of the four officers), that matter shall be directed to the full Board for a decision.
- C. Officers include the following: President, Vice-President, Secretary, and Treasurer.

- D. Term of office is for two (2) years. Renewal for a second term of two years may occur, with a maximum of four (4) consecutive years in the same office.
- E. There is no expectation for succession. (Example: The Vice President is not expected to become President in the subsequent term.)
- F. Officers may choose to not continue as an officer but remain as a Director.
- G. For specifics of Officer responsibilities see Bylaws, Section 4.

X. Board Chaired Committees

- A. The Finance Committee shall be chaired by the Treasurer.
 - 1. Treasurer shall nominate members for Board approval at the first Board meeting of the fiscal year and at other times of the year as needed.
 - 2. Advises the Treasurer on budget development and financial issues.
- B. The Policy and Operational Procedures Committee shall be chaired by a Director.
 - 1. Assure that Board members have electronic and hard copies of Guild Bylaws and Policies & Operational Procedures at the beginning of their term and updates as appropriate.
 - 2. Monitors the Policies & Operational Procedures, assuring that changes directed by the Board are reflected in appropriate revisions.
 - 3. Maintains awareness of Bylaw provisions to advise Board of Directors as needed.
 - 4. Proposed changes will be published in the newsletter and on the website to allow member and Director input prior to presentation to the Board for approval/recommendations.
- C. The Recruitment Committee shall be chaired by a Director or Guild-member appointee.
 - 1. Verifies Director, Officer, and Committee Chairs' intent for the upcoming year by March 15th.
 - 2. Identifies qualified Director and Officer candidates when needed.
 - 3. Looks for committee chairpersons for Committee Chair appointments to be confirmed at Annual Meeting.

Operational Procedures

I. How to Resign from the Board

Notify the President of the Board, in writing or by email, that you wish to resign, the effective date of the resignation and the reason you cannot complete your term.

II. How to Request a Replacement on the Board

Notify the Chairperson of the Recruitment Committee, in writing or by email, prior to March 15th, that you wish to be replaced at the end of the fiscal year. You should expect to continue your role until June 30th.

III. How to Resign as an Officer of the Board

- A. Notify the President of the Board, in writing or by email, that you wish to resign, the effective date of the resignation and the reason you cannot complete your term.
- B. Specify whether you are also resigning from the Board of Directors or if you wish to continue in that role.
- C. Note: the expected term for an officer is two years. If you are only able to serve one year of a two-year term, you may choose to serve your resignation by the March 15th deadline, to the Chair of the Recruitment Committee.

IV. Filling a Vacancy on the Board of Directors

- A. Unexpected Vacancy
 - 1. Anytime the number of Directors on the Board falls below nine (9) members for any reason, the Recruitment Committee shall recruit one or more willing and qualified members to fill the vacancy and submit their name and qualifications to the Board.
 - 2. The Board may vote to select a candidate from multiple candidates submitted or vote to appoint the individual if a single candidate is presented.
- B. Anticipated Vacancies
 - 1. Anticipated vacancies occur when a Director indicates to the Chair of the Recruitment Committee that they will not continue to serve past the end of the fiscal year.
 - 2. The Recruitment Committee shall recruit a minimum of one qualified and willing candidate for each vacancy anticipated and submit their name and qualifications to the Board.
 - 3. The Board may vote to select the desired number of candidates for the positions available or vote to appoint the individuals if the number of candidates does not exceed the number of positions available.

V. Filling a Vacant Officer Position

- A. Unexpected Vacancy

1. Anytime an Officer's position becomes vacant it must be filled as soon as possible.
2. Officer positions are filled from within the Board of Directors.
- B. The Board may vote to select a candidate from multiple candidates or vote to appoint an individual if a single candidate is presented.
- C. Anticipated Vacancies
 1. Anticipated vacancies occur when an Officer indicates to the Chair of the Recruitment Committee that they will not continue to serve as an Officer past the end of the fiscal year.
 2. Candidates will be recruited from the remaining members of the Board to stand for election or appointment.

VI. Meeting Schedules

- A. Annual Meeting
 1. Notice to members, inviting them to attend, should be included in the Yearbook, the newsletter, and on the Guild's website.
 2. Committee Chairs and/or members wishing to address the Board should request time on the agenda by contacting the President or by speaking for no more than 5 minutes during an open time provided by the Board for this purpose.
- B. Regular Board Meetings
 1. A schedule of regular meetings of the Board will be established by the Board at the Annual Meeting and published in the Yearbook, the newsletter, and on the Guild's website.
 2. Members are invited to attend.
 3. Committee Chairs and/or members wishing to address the Board should request time on the agenda by contacting the President or by speaking for no more than 5 minutes during an open time provided by the Board for this purpose.
- C. Special Meetings of the Board
 1. Special meetings of the board may be called on short notice to handle a specified piece of business.
 2. Attendance of non-board members is at the discretion of the Board.
 3. Inclusion of the membership is to be encouraged when appropriate.

VII. How to do a Consent in Lieu of Meeting

- A. A resolution may be proposed by any Director to any Officer of the Board.
- B. Board Officers will agree as to the wording prior to sending the resolution to the entire Board.
- C. A unanimous vote determines the outcome, which will be recorded by the Secretary and retained as all Board minutes are retained.

- D. If the vote is not unanimous, the matter should be considered at a Regular or Special Meeting of the Board.
- E. See Appendix A for suggested format.

VIII. Health and Safety Provisions

- A. The Board shall quarterly review conditions affecting member health and safety and shall set meeting formats for membership meetings, workshops, study groups and other Guild-sponsored activities for the upcoming three months.
- B. The Board shall strive to accommodate members' special needs through such actions as providing amplification of voices, remote access, etc.
- C. The Board may cancel or restructure the format of any Guild conducted or - sponsored activity as needed due to weather, power outages or other threats to health and safety.

Consent in Lieu of Meeting

All voters on this resolution are Directors on the Board of the Olympia Weavers Guild. Directors may vote by sending an email to the President of the Board of Directors saying Yes, No or I Abstain.

The resolution may be proposed by any Director to an Officer of the Board. Board Officers will agree as to the wording prior to sending the resolution to the entire Board.

A unanimous vote will determine the outcome.

Document and Record Retention

Purpose

The purpose of this document is to review the documents and records created by the Guild in the course of business and specify the length of time and the way in which they are to be retained, reviewed, and destroyed consistent with federal and state laws and regulations.

The goal of these policies and procedures is to eliminate accidental or innocent destruction of records and to facilitate Guild's operations by promoting efficiency and the freeing up of storage space.

Relevant Bylaws

The governing article in the Bylaws is Section 7, Records and Records Retention.

Definitions

Documents are defined as written, printed, or electronic matter that provide information or evidence or that serve as an official record.

Records are defined as providing a piece of evidence about the past, especially an account in writing or some other permanent form.

Policies

I. Document Retention

- A. The Guild will follow the document retention procedures outlined in Appendix A.
- B. Documents that are not listed but are substantially similar to those listed in the schedule will be retained for the appropriate length of time.

II. Electronic Documents and Records

- A. Electronic documents will be retained as if they were paper documents.
- B. If a user has sufficient reason to keep an email message, the message should be printed in hard copy and kept in the appropriate file or moved to an "archive" computer file folder as a pdf document.
- C. Keeping in mind that all Guild officers and chairpersons may not have the same ability to utilize electronic records at the present time or in the future, consideration to usability of records should be kept in mind.

- D. Reasonable security precautions should be practiced by members utilizing electronic records, including regular back-up of records, maintenance of passwords, and use of off-site electronic file storage.

III. Document Destruction

- A. Documents which have been retained for the prescribed length of time may be destroyed, accomplished by shredding or deleting electronic items.
- B. Destruction/deletion of outdated records may be supervised by the Treasurer, Secretary, or by a committee formed for that purpose.

IV. Document Storage

Documents will be stored at a physical location, an electronic location, or both, as dictated by the needs of the organization and determined by the Board.

Finances

Purpose

The purpose of this document is to detail the ways in which the Board and membership function with respect to overall financial management of the Guild and the ways in which monies are handled to maximize accuracy and accountability and minimize error or loss.

Authority/Relevant Documents

Authority and relevant documents are as follows:

Declaration of Federal Non-Profit Status
Articles of Incorporation, Amendment, Addendum
Bylaws, Sections 3, 4, 6, and 7

Policies

I. Handling Money

In an effort to maximize accuracy and minimize opportunities for error or loss, all Directors, Officers, Committee Chairs, and members of the Guild will follow standardized processes when handling monies, whether cash, check, or charged items. See Procedure for Handling Money.

II. Requesting Checks

- A. Committee Chairs are responsible for seeing that total incurred plus anticipated expenditures do not exceed their annual budgeted amounts and that income targets are met. If additional expenditure authority is needed, the Committee Chair must request a budget variance from the Board prior to expending the additional money.
- B. Committee chairs shall notify the Treasurer in a timely manner if it appears they will not reach their income targets.
- C. Requests for checks must be submitted to the Treasurer by the appropriate individual with documentation of the reason for the request and the appropriate form. See Procedure for Requesting Checks.

III. Account Maintenance

- A. The Treasurer and the President are signatories on all accounts. Account signatures shall be updated no later than September 1 of each year. The fiscal year begins July 1.
- B. No one shall write a check to themselves or pre-sign blank checks.

- C. A record of all account activity shall be maintained on a designated software program; entries shall be made by the Treasurer.
- D. The computer used by the Treasurer shall have security software in place and a consistent backup system in use.

IV. Account Activity

- A. All transactions, whether deposits or payments, must be clearly documented in a manner sufficient to show the reason for the amount, the identity of the individual requesting or depositing, and the general origin of the deposit or the specific origin of the expense.
- B. Email requests are sufficient but shall include the current form being used for documentation and copies of all supporting receipts.
- C. Recurring expenses made without a specific request shall be documented by a note in the file or a copy of a letter accompanying the payment.
- D. Requests shall be paid or moneys deposited within ten days of receipt by the Treasurer.

V. Finance Review Responsibilities

- A. One member of the Guild other than those with signature authority at the bank shall be designated by the Board as the person to perform a monthly review of bank activities.
 - 1. This Designated Person shall have “authorized user” status on the bank accounts to enable electronic access, but no authority to perform transactions.
 - 2. The monthly review of bank activities is described in Procedure IV of this document.
- B. Quarterly, for periods that end with September, December, March, and June, the Designated Person shall:
 - 1. Receive (from the Treasurer) and review the year-to-date Profit and Loss Detail.
 - 2. Receive (from the Treasurer) adequate information to facilitate the determination that proper procedure has been followed related to the requesting and disbursement of funds.
 - a. Obtain monthly packets for the preceding three months (check requests, check/cash deposits, bank statements, any other pertinent material) and spot-check them to assure that established processes have been followed.
 - b. Address any issues brought by the Treasurer.
- C. Yearly, for the period ending with June, the Designated Person shall:
 - 1. Review the year-end Treasurer’s Summary.

2. Review the end-of Treasurer's term report (outside review of financial dealing) from the previous year(s) if present.
 3. Review end-of Treasurer's term material prior to sending to outside review if applicable.
- D. The Designated Person shall assist with preparation of the budget for the upcoming fiscal year.
- E. A person who is not a Guild member, but is a financial professional, shall conduct an independent review of the Guild's financial records and practices every two years, and shall submit his/her observations, conclusions, and recommendations to the Board.

VI. Account Reporting

- A. Financial statements detailing the income and expenses of the Guild shall be prepared quarterly by the Treasurer and provided to the Board of Directors.
1. Specifically, for periods that end with September, December, March, and June, the Treasurer shall submit the following to the Board:
 - a. A year-to-date Profit and Loss Detail Report.
 - b. The opening and closing amounts in each account for the reporting period, as well as the amount of income and expenditures for each account, if any.
 - c. Adequate information to facilitate the committee's determination that proper procedure has been followed related to the requesting and disbursement of funds.
 - d. Outstanding issues identified by the Treasurer and/or Designated Person.
 2. The quarterly report shall be signed by the Treasurer and copies maintained by the Treasurer and the Secretary.
- B. An annual financial report and annual financial statements shall be prepared and maintained by the Treasurer and Secretary.
- C. The completed fiscal year report (Profit and Loss Standard or equivalent, Fund Report of Actuals) shall be published in the October newsletter.
- D. The Treasurer shall submit a year-end, all-inclusive Treasurer's Report which includes opening and closing amounts in each account for the reporting period of July 1 through June 30, as well as the amount of income and expenditure for each account, if any. A written narrative should accompany the year-end report detailing budgetary variances, if any, and discussing any issues or recommendations that are appropriate.
- E. When considering the proposed budget for the upcoming year, the Board shall consider the reported expenses and budget variances to date for the current year.

VII. Budget Development and Adjustments

- A. The annual budget development process shall provide for the Treasurer, in consultation with the Finance Committee, utilizing input from Committee chairs, officers, and others regarding cost and income estimates to draft a proposed budget.
- B. The Treasurer shall present the draft budget for the upcoming year (July through June) for member and Director review prior to Board approval in May of the current fiscal year.
- C. Committee chairs and others responsible for income or expense items in the budget shall provide timely best estimates of income and expenses and other relevant information necessary for annual budget development, including estimates for subcommittee functions.
- D. Current fiscal year expense or income adjustments may be proposed to the President and Treasurer, who shall present them to the Board for approval.
 - 1. Should total actual revenues not be sufficient to cover total expenses outlined in the adopted budget, the Treasurer shall work with the Finance Committee to develop a revised budget to be presented to the Board for approval.

Operational Procedures

I. Receiving and Handling Money

- A. Monies may be received in the form of coins, bills, checks, and credit card charges.
 - 1. Items shall be counted and recorded separately, with a final total reflecting all types added together.
 - 2. When accepting checks, examine the check to assure that the date is current, that written and figure amounts are the same, and that the check is signed.
- B. Two individuals shall independently count each item, in the presence of one another on the day that money is received. The count shall be repeated until both totals agree.
 - 1. It is preferred that one of the persons be the Committee Chair submitting the deposit to the Treasurer and the second person be a guild member.
 - 2. If this is not possible at receipt, then count may occur at a later time prior to the items being passed to the Treasurer.
- C. Submit funds to the Treasurer along with a Cash Receipt and/or Count sheet form filled out and signed by the Committee chair or designee, as well as by one witness.

- D. Documentation (See Appendix A, Check/Cash Receipts and Appendix B, Count Sheet)

II. Requesting Checks

- A. Check Request forms (Appendix C) must be completed and signed by the chair of a committee and supported by documentation such as a receipt, contract, invoice, or minutes of payment approval.
- B. If the check request is for reimbursement to a committee chair, it must be signed by the President.
- C. Email requests will be honored; a copy of the email request must include a Check Request form along with image of supporting receipts.
- D. Checks requested for monies paid from multiple budget items should specify the items and corresponding amounts on the Check Request form.
- E. The Check Request Form should indicate to whom or where the check is to be delivered and other pertinent information (for example, check is confidential—to be given to Scholarship Chair for presentation at June meeting.)

III. Account Reporting Process – Treasurer

- A. Using the electronic bank statement, reconcile all accounts, creating and saving the Detailed Reconciliation reports as a PDF file.
- B. By the second Friday of the month, send these files and the Profit and Loss Detail Report to the Designated person for review.
- C. Attach the cleared deposit and check requests to the appropriate statements and retain these records.

IV. Account Reporting Process – Designated Person

- A. Print the relevant reports sent by the Treasurer. Log into the Guild bank accounts.
- B. Utilizing these reports, and the same reports from the previous month, if indicated, verify the Profit and Loss Detail Report against bank account balances and activities.
- C. View each check image online.
- D. Identify any discrepancies and discuss them with the Treasurer. If the discrepancy cannot be resolved through discussion, the issue should be forwarded to the Board of Directors no later than the next quarterly review date.
- E. Sign the statements and return them to the Treasurer.

General Information for All Committees

Purpose

The Guild's goals are accomplished by the work of committees.

The purpose of this document is to define the different types of committees and detail general guidelines for all committees, committee chairs, and committee work.

Definitions

ANWG – Association of Northwest Weaver's Guilds
HGA – Handweavers Guild of America
BOD – Board of Directors

Authority/Relevant Documents

Policies & Operational Procedures: Board of Directors; Finances; Operational Details; Individual Committee documents

Policies

I. General Guidelines for All Committees

- A. The size of all committees, unless otherwise prescribed, is at the discretion of the committee chair.
- B. Committees may persist from year to year, as their work is on-going, and shall be referred to as Standing Committees. Standing Committees may have subcommittees.
- C. Committees may be created for a specific purpose and their duration is limited by the scope of their work. These shall be referred to as Ad Hoc Committees.
- D. Committees, subcommittees, and individual members' actions are subject to existing Guild Bylaws, Policies and Operational Procedures.
- E. Existing Guild Policies and Operational Procedures for the receiving, handling, counting, and management of funds shall be followed by all committee chairs and members at all times. Additionally, Committee chairs and others responsible for budgeted income and expenses shall follow existing Guild POPs for budget development and adjustments. See Finances document.
- F. Specific committee functions are listed in separate Policy and Operational Procedure documents.

II. Committee Chair Responsibilities

- A. Chair responsibilities common to all Chair positions
 - 1. Committee expenditures are monitored and submitted to the Treasurer by Committee Chairs in accordance with existing Policies and Operational Procedures.
 - 2. Committee Chairs are expected to keep Guild membership and the Board updated on committee and subcommittee activities through meeting reports, newsletter articles, and social media updates, as appropriate, or ensure this communication is being done by the Subcommittee Lead.
 - 3. Standing Committee Chairs should receive a notebook at the beginning of their term from the outgoing Chair regarding activities, duties, etc. of the chair and the committee.
 - a. Notebooks are intended to be used by the Committee and subcommittees, as appropriate, to accomplish their respective roles.
 - b. Relevant contacts, resources, and timelines should be included.
 - 4. Chair positions are voluntary and are not term limited. Chairs are expected to indicate their desire to continue or to leave their position by March 15th of each year and should communicate this desire to the Chair of the Recruitment Committee.
 - 5. Committee Chairs are expected to create an Annual Report summarizing the committee's activities and budget compliance for the current fiscal year and speaking to plans, including budget and goals for the next year. Annual Reports are due at the end of each fiscal year. The report is prepared in duplicate; one copy is given to the Board and one copy remains in the committee notebook.
 - 6. Committee Chairs (or their designee) wishing to address the Board of Directors may do so at any annual, regular, or special Board meeting at the discretion of the Board by requesting time on the agenda or during a period set aside for this purpose by the Board.
 - 7. Committee Chairs shall assure the training of "backup" members for critical functions.
- B. Standing Committees with Subcommittees
 - 1. Most standing committees will utilize subcommittees to accomplish their goals.
 - 2. The leader of a subcommittee is referred to as the Lead and reports to the Committee Chair.
 - 3. A Committee Chair may also be the Lead of one or more subcommittees.

4. Lead positions are voluntary and are not term limited. Leads are expected to indicate their desire to continue or to leave their position by March 15th of each year and should communicate this desire to their Chair and/or to the Chair of the Recruitment Committee.
5. Subcommittee Leads are expected to do the following:
 - a. Consult with the Committee Chair when questions arise as to the direction of work efforts.
 - b. Keep the Chair informed about activities, budget issues, needs, and planning.
 - c. Participate with the Chair as requested during the budgeting process and the annual reporting process.
 - d. Maintain records of Subcommittee activities as requested by the Chair of the Committee or as needed to facilitate others who may fill this role in the future.
 - e. Update Guild membership and the Board on subcommittee activities through meeting reports, newsletter articles, and social media updates when requested to do so by the Committee Chair.

Organizational Details

Purpose

The purpose of this document is to review the background of the Guild, describe it in general terms, its affiliations, and publications and to speak to use of photographs and members' contact information.

Brief History Overview

The Olympia Weavers Guild first met in 1944 with nine members and has continued to grow since then. The Guild gained IRS non-profit status, effective late 1992 and incorporated as a Washington non-profit corporation that year as well.

In 2022, the Guild voted to change from a membership-managed organization to a Director-managed organization.

Policies

I. Purpose

- A. The purpose of the Olympia Weavers Guild shall be to provide a safe and welcoming forum where active weavers and fiber artists may share information, knowledge, and techniques, and provide each other with guidance, encouragement, inspiration, and Guild-financed grant support.
- B. Guild members are encouraged to share their interests in weaving with members of the community by promoting community education and participating in special events and services.
- C. Membership in the Guild is open to any individual interested in weaving and related fiber arts.
- D. Existing Guild Policies and Operational Procedures for the receiving, handling, counting and management of funds shall be always followed by all Committee chairs and members. Additionally, Committee chairs and others responsible for budgeted income and expenses shall follow existing Guild POPs for budget development and adjustments. See Finances.

II. Affiliations

The Olympia Weavers Guild is affiliated with the Association of Northwest Weavers' Guilds (ANWG) and the Handweaver's Guild of America (HGA) and pays dues annually to both organizations.

III. Publications The following are the Guild's publications. For more detail, refer to individual committee documents.

- A. Newsletter: The official publication shall be titled The Olympia Weavers Guild Newsletter. It shall be published every month that the Guild meets and members shall receive a copy.
- B. Yearbook and Resource Guide: Published yearly in September, this publication includes a list of Guild Directors and Officers, current members, committee Chairs, programs and workshops for the current year. Grant information, Show and Sale eligibility, Properties available for rent, and sponsored advertising information are also included.
- C. Website: Updated regularly, the Guild website (www.olympiaweaversguild.org) provides the community and Guild members with information regarding the Guild and Guild activities. See Communications Committee document.
- D. Bylaws, Policies and Operational Procedures are posted on the Guild website. Copies are available in the library.
- E. Responsibilities for publications are referenced in the relevant Committee Document.

IV. Confidentiality and Access

- A. Any individual with special needs is asked to contact the Membership Chair or email via website information contact and efforts will be made to accommodate them.
- B. General photos or videorecording of Guild meetings is not permitted. Anyone wanting to photograph specific artwork must have permission of the artist.
- C. Photographs may be taken at Guild meetings during Showcase and at Guild sponsored events by the Historian. Members may express their wish to not have their photographs taken or used by the Guild. See Procedure.
- D. Member name, address, and contact information is published annually in the Yearbook, which is distributed only to members and Yearbook advertisers. Members may express their wish to exclude their address or contact information from being published in the Yearbook. See Procedure.

- E. Books and records are made available to member request for inspection and copying. Members may request to exclude their address or contact information from books and records requests. See Operational Procedure.

Operational Procedures

I. Member Photographs, Address and Contact Information Confidentiality

- A. On the Guild form used for new membership and for annual renewal of membership, the following options are included so that members can request confidentiality of their photographs or contact information:
1. Photographs:
“Photographs may be taken during Guild sponsored events. Please choose one of the following:
___ I agree that photos of me taken during guild events may be used by the Guild.
___ I do not want my photo taken or used in any manner and agree to wear a special name tag at all guild functions to let photographers know I do not wish my photograph taken,”
 2. Yearbook:
“Every year the Guild prints a yearbook, which is printed and mailed to members and advertisers. The Yearbook includes addresses and contact information. Please choose one of the following:
___ I agree that the Guild may publish my contact information in the yearbook subject to the following limitations (detail any restrictions) _____
___ I do not want the Guild to publish my contact information in the yearbook or to disclose it in any other manner.”
 3. Special Needs Communication:
“If you have special needs and would like to request accommodation, please contact the Membership Chair listed on this form or contact us at info@olympiaweaversguild.org.”

II. Requesting and Responding to a Request for Inspection of Books and Records

- A. Requesting Access
1. This procedure and attached form are not required if a member has a question regarding a piece of information that could be provided by a conversation with an Officer, Director or Committee Chair. It is meant to address a member’s request for complex or extensive information regarding OWG or OWG’s operation.

- a. Examples not requiring that a form be filled out: What was the value of merchandise sold at the last Show & Sale? How much was budgeted for Sheep to Shawl expenses in 2018?
 - b. Examples that would require that a form be filled out: How much has been expended in Grants, by year, from the Hazel Patterson Memorial Fund since it began? How much money has been donated by members to the scholarship fund? How much money has the library spent each of the last ten years?
 2. Complete the form in Appendix A and forward it to the Secretary. If additional routing is required, the Request Form will be forwarded as appropriate.
- B. Responding to the Request
1. Secretary will document receipt of the request and whether clarification is needed. Clarification needed/obtained should be documented on the form.
 2. If the request is forwarded to another Officer, Director, or Committee Chair, this should be documented on the form.
 3. Requests incurring expense or research time should be documented and verified with the requesting member before proceeding.
 4. A list of books and/or records provided should be summarized on the request form or a copy attached.

Programs and Workshops

Purpose

The purpose of this committee is to arrange for programs to be presented at Guild membership meetings September through May, excluding December, and one or two extended day or multi-day workshops each year, based on the interests of members and the annual budget.

The intention is to expand members' knowledge, skills, and abilities and to provide encouragement and inspiration.

Authority/Relevant Documents

The relevant documents are as follows:

Articles of Incorporation, including Amendments and Addendums
Policy & Operational Procedures: Finances, General Committee Information,
Membership, Organizational Details

Policies

I. General Overview

- A. The Programs and Workshops Committee is a Standing Committee led by two members: the Chair and an Assistant. A two-year commitment is suggested but is not mandatory.
- B. The Chair and Assistant are encouraged to utilize additional members on their committee to accomplish the scope of work.
- C. The general responsibilities of Committee Chairs are addressed in the General Committee Information POP.
- D. Existing Guild Policies and Operational Procedures for the receiving, handling, counting, and management of funds shall be always followed by the Committee chair and members. Additionally, Committee chairs and others responsible for budgeted income and expenses shall follow existing Guild POPs for budget development and adjustments. See Finances Document.

II. Programs

- A. Program expenses are paid by the Guild, subject to the budget. Grant and Scholarship recipients present programs at no charge as a condition of receiving funds.

- B. If a workshop instructor also presents a program, travel expenses will be split between Programs and Workshops, when contracted together.

III. Workshops

- A. Workshops are organized on a cost recovery basis with participants paying all workshop expenses. Costs are rounded up to the nearest dollar.
- B. Workshop participants pay all workshop expenses to the Guild through the Committee Chair.
- C. A Member who hosts a Workshop instructor is exempt from Workshop fees, but is responsible for the instructor's local transportation, housing, and meals.
- D. Instructor hosts are selected by the committee.
- E. Registration
 - 1. Registration deadlines are announced at Guild meetings, in the newsletter, and by email. This is to ensure equal access to workshops for all members.
 - 2. To secure a registration, members pay a deposit, generally one half of the estimated cost, by a deadline set by the committee.
 - 3. When the number of registrations exceeds the number of spaces in a workshop
 - a. Participants are selected by lottery, which will continue to create the waitlist.
 - b. All others are placed on a wait list in lottery order.
 - c. Additional registrations are accepted, or added to the wait list, in the order received.
 - d. When there are spaces in the workshop, and no members on the wait list, invitations may be extended to other guilds in the area.
- F. Workshop Deposits
 - 1. Deposits are non-refundable and once registered, participants are obligated to pay the entire workshop cost.
 - 2. A registered participant who is not able to attend the workshop may work with the committee to find a substitute from the following sources:
 - a. The waiting list, in lottery order.
 - b. Guild members.
 - c. Other Guilds or individuals.
 - 3. The registered participant and the substitute will work out how the deposit and registration costs are repaid to the registered participant.
 - 4. Balance due after the deposit is paid must be paid prior to the workshop at a date set by the committee.

5. If a booking is canceled, the Guild pays the contracted facility fee if owed.
- G. Coffee and tea are supplied by the Guild; participants provide their own food.

IV. Responsibilities (in addition to those listed in the General Committee Information POP)

- A. Responsibilities of the Committee Chair and Assistant may be delegated to committee members with the following caveats:
 1. If the Committee Chair, Assistant, or a committee member is a current member of the Board of Directors, they may request the Board authorize them to sign any contracts referenced below.
 2. If there are no current Directors on the Program & Workshops Committee, all contracts must be signed by the President or Vice President.
- B. Responsibilities of the Committee Chair and Assistant
 1. Arrange for Program presenters and Workshop instructors. When possible, the Program presenter may also teach a workshop.
 2. Negotiate, deliver, and retain copies of contracts and agreements on behalf of the guild with
 - a. Facilities and other resource providers, including for regular membership meetings.
 - b. Program presenters
 - c. Workshop instructors
 3. Use the Guild's established contract language, including provisions for cancellations and/or venue contract language as appropriate.
 4. Participate in the budget planning process. Request approvals for budget increases, in advance, from the Board of Directors.
 5. Manage income and expenses of the committee based on the approved budget. Submit receipts and income to the Treasurer in a timely manner. This may include:
 - a. Funds from Workshop deposits and registrations
 - b. Payment to facilities and other resource providers
 - c. Payment to presenters and instructors
 - d. Reimbursement for incidental office supplies needed for committee work.
 - e. Travel reimbursements at the business rate established yearly by the IRS and utilized for government contracted travel mileage (see irs.gov).
 6. Arrange resources as agreed for the presenter or instructor. This may include:
 - a. Copies of handouts

- b. Equipment, display tables, etc. Local transportation, housing, and meals. (See Workshop policy.)
 - c. Meeting space
- 7. Provide descriptions of upcoming programs and workshops to the website and newsletter editors.
- 8. Oversee registrations and payments for workshops according to Workshop policy.
- 9. Submit an annual report to the Board at year's end.
- 10. Maintain a notebook of detailed procedures, timelines, suggestions, job assignments, copies of letter and contracts, and/or any other information useful to future committee members.

Operational Procedures

Detailed procedures, specific timelines, suggestions, job assignments and other significant information can be found in the committee notebook.

Articles of Incorporation, Article III

Policies & Operational Procedures: Finances, General Committee Information

Policies

I. Acquisition of Items

- A. With input from the Board and/or membership, the Chair and committee are responsible for accepting donations and/or acquiring properties suitable for use within the Guild, but not in infinite numbers, according to the following criteria:
 - 1. Item can be used for beginning weaver classes – e.g., table loom and accessories; warping board; shuttles; hooks, etc.
 - 2. Item can be used for experienced weaver workshops – e.g., multi-shaft table looms; maraudai or inkle looms; card weaving tools.
 - 3. Items can be used for weaving adjunctive activities – e.g., rag cutters; carders.
 - 4. Considered item requires acceptable level of work to make it functional.
- B. The Chair and committee are responsible for ensuring that equipment is inspected, repaired, and maintained in reasonable working condition and that an up-to-date inventory, including dollar value of items, is maintained.
 - 1. Up-to-date records shall reflect the property usage and issues or problems identified by the user.
 - 2. Lost or damaged property will be replaced by the borrower, in an amount equal to the cost of a suitable repair or replacement.
- C. Existing Guild Policies and Operational Procedures for the receiving, handling, counting and management of funds shall be always followed. Additionally, those responsible for budgeted income and expenses shall follow existing Guild POPs for budget development and adjustments. See Finances document.

II. Disposal of Items

- A. Items donated and deemed not acceptable for Properties inventory (for example: floor loom, requires unacceptable level of repair, not usable for class/workshop) may be disposed of in the following manner:
 - 1. Offer item to members for sale or donation.
 - a. If donation, member making donation must specify where donation will go (general fund or grant fund). If not specified, donation goes to the general fund.
 - b. If sold, advise Treasurer sales tax is due to be paid. This may occur if it is a large item or sold on behalf of a member/donor.
 - 2. If not sold to members, item may be offered to other guilds or advertised to the public at large.
 - a. For further details, refer to "Properties Job Duties" document or Properties notebook.

III. Use of Property by Guild Members

- A. All usage of guild-owned equipment is subject to rental fees except for the following:
 - 1. Equipment used by a member for public demonstrations.
 - 2. Equipment used by a Guild study group or as a traveling loom.
- B. Rental fees are established by the Board of Directors. (See Operational Procedures below for current rental fees.)

IV. Use of Property by Non-Guild Members

Non-members from out of the area may be allowed to rent equipment if both parties sign an agreement and a deposit ($100 or more) is required.

V. Other Items

- A. The Properties Committee is also responsible for the oversight and storage of other items owned by the Guild, subject to available space. Such items may include the following:
 - 1. Historical Records
 - 2. Show and Sale display props
 - 3. Library materials

Operational Procedures

I. Rental fees are as follows:

- A. No fee for the use of raddles, stick shuttles, slewing hooks, or lease sticks.
- B. Looms (4 and/or 8 shaft Woolhouse, Rasmussen, Mountain, Dorothy, Bergman, and Louet) $25.00 for up to 60 days; $8/week thereafter.
- C. Additional equipment (Mountain loom stand, supplemental warp beam; Inkle looms; Marudai Stand; Drum Carder; Rag Cutter; Warping Board) $10.00 for up to 60 days; $5.00/month thereafter.
- D. Individual reed or temple $5.00 for up to 60 days; $2.00/month thereafter.
- E. Fees are paid when items are checked out, any remainder is paid on return.

II. Accepting Donations

When accepting donations, Committee Chair should issue receipts to donors for tax purposes as appropriate.

III. Repair or Replacement of Damaged or Lost Property

- A. Review of the equipment both on leaving the facility and returning, as well as input from the borrower, will document need for routine repair and maintenance, which may be done by the Properties committee or Guild volunteers.
- B. Damage in excess of normal wear and tear should be discussed with the borrower with the hope an agreement can be reached, repair affected, and the Guild reimbursed for repair costs.
- C. If the property is lost or damaged so badly that repair is not feasible, the borrower shall reimburse the Guild for the cost of replacing the item.
- D. If the Properties chair, making reasonable efforts, is unable to reach the borrower in a reasonable amount of time and recovery of the item is not deemed possible, the item will be deemed lost.
 - 1. Chair will notify the Board.
 - 2. If Board efforts do not yield results, the Board may direct Membership to consider the individual a “member not in good standing”, thus not allowed membership privileges until and unless the issue is resolved.

Show and Sale

Purpose

The purpose of this document is to detail the guidelines governing the Show and Sale and the process by which the Show and Sale Committee will operate to ensure that the event functions as desired.

The purpose of the Show and Sale is as follows:

1. To educate the public on the many aspects of the fiber arts and the guild community.
2. To provide an environment for preserving and continuing these traditions.
3. To provide an opportunity for Guild artists to present quality handcrafted items for sale to the local community.
4. To contribute to the Guild's General Fund.

Policies & Operational Procedures: Finances, General Committee Information;
Operational Details

Policies

I. Acceptable Items

- A. OWG promotes all aspects of fiber arts and its members are involved in many related activities. Handcrafted items accepted for the sale will include one or more of these techniques: Woven, plaited, coiled, twined, spun, knitted, crocheted, tatted, hooked, felted, braided, hand-dyed or resist dyed, surface embellished or related historical/cultural fiber techniques (e.g. Viking knitting, nalbinding, paper making).
- B. These techniques will be shown, for example, in yarns, garments, accessories for apparel, textiles, books, baskets, wall hangings, rugs, other items for the home and fiber arts related equipment or materials.

II. Artist's Eligibility Criteria

- A. Entered items must be handmade by the guild member submitting them for sale and meet the criteria stated above.
- B. Artists will use the provided inventory sheets, with each item listed on an individual line. Detailed instructions are provided before the Sale.

- C. Artists will tag their items with the provided tags. Individual tags may be added to the item in addition to the guild tag. Prepared fibers sold by the guild grower or dyer must be clearly labeled as such.
- D. To be eligible to sell, one must be an active member in good standing of the Olympia Weavers Guild by the most recent September meeting.
- E. These policies will be reviewed annually by the Show and Sale committee, approved by the Board, and published in the Yearbook.

III. Financial Detail

- A. Participants who volunteer to work any aspect of the show agree to donate 18% of their sales to the guild. Non-working members donate 23% of their sales. Members may choose to donate 100% of their sales.
- B. The Show and Sale shall be self-funded, with any balance more than expenses going to the Guild's General Fund.
- C. Existing Guild Policies and Operational Procedures for the receiving, handling, counting and management of funds and for budget development and adjustments shall be followed. See Finances document.

Operational Procedures

I. Summary of Areas of Responsibility

- A. The Show and Sale is a large event with a workload spread throughout the Guild year. It is recommended that the Chair utilize co-chairs or job-related sub-committee members to accomplish the tasks needed and to distribute the workload with multiple members. Areas of responsibility for the Committee Chair are as follows:
 - 1. Reserve, and ensure contracting for the event space.
 - 2. Determine date of sale.
 - 3. Organize all committee meetings.
 - 4. Arrange for tables and other equipment, linens, advertising, staff scheduling, printed flyers.
 - 5. Ensure the supply of tags and inventory sheets.
 - 6. Procure necessary tax papers.
 - 7. Receive Guild money for the cash box start-up.
 - 8. Arrange overnight storage space and safekeeping for checks and cash received.
 - 9. After the event, deposit money, balance the financial records, ensure payment of sales tax and disburse proceeds to the sellers with a report.
- B. Detailed procedures, specific timelines, suggestions, job assignments and other significant information can be found in the committee notebook.

II. Determining the Eligibility of Items for Sale

- A. Participating artists are expected to determine that the items submitted for the Show and Sale meet the guidelines listed in “Acceptable Items” of this document.
- B. Questions regarding suitability may be submitted to Chair of the Show and Sale Committee who will consult with members of the committee.
- C. The Committee shall determine whether the items in question meet the criteria and will convey the decision and the reasons for the decision to the artist up to and including the time of the Show and Sale.
